

Meandering Tea Room Walks in Devon (Paperback)

By John Coombes

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book contains 11 circular walks with easy instructions to follow along walks of 2 miles to 5.5 miles with extra text to advise on terrain and how to access to the start. The countryside is beautiful and the walks all have something different to offer along the way. The views can be quite spectacular and to have a Tea Room along the way is nice to relax and enjoy a Devonshire Cream Tea. There are open fields, river paths, meadows, woodlands and even small hamlets with there old thatched cottages reserved only for the chocolate boxes. It is great to get out in the country and see lots of things you would not see from the car and for the family there is the added bonus of a Tea Room somewhere along the way. Always make sure you have a paper O.S. map and compass before setting out on your walk, never just trust your G.P.S. or Smartphone these may not work in your area for one reason or another. Also make sure your footwear is right for the terrain you are...
