boardrooms, The Chief X Officer (CxO): A Survival Guide for Turbulent Times sets the pace for the new leaders of corporate world. Succinct and straight to the point, coauthors Majed A. Rahim and Basil A. Nabi show readers what it takes to succeed in middle and senior management in a company that is experiencing transformation. It is all about how to be the new player on the team and what to do in the first ninety days.

From skipping the initial meet and greet and distinguishing oneself from the former management staff to taking over the reigns of a predecessor and managing goals and expectations, this book is a must-read for anyone wanting to excel as a corporate change agent. The book is presented in twelve sections with titles such as Meeting the Troops, Expanding the Circle, and Understanding the Lay of the Land. Finally, a business guide that makes real change quite simple. Kirkus Review: "...high-impact guide through the corporate labyrinth for newly hired senior executives.[a] volume of no-nonsense advice...
