HOW THE FOX GOT HIS COLOR BILINGUAL SERBIAN ENGLISH (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Mgean Gibbs (illustrator). Bilingual. Language: . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This delightful little story tells of a young girl's time with her grandmother as she relates a legend of how a mischievous little white fox, with all his grand adventures, became the red fox we all know today. How the Fox got His Color may well become an all-time children's classic and a perfect book for the young reader. English as a second language students will enjoy it as a valuable study tool, as well as those learning a foreign language. Serbian is practically the only European standard language with complete synchronic digraphia, using both Cyrillic and Latin alphabets; speakers read the two scripts equally well. The Serbian Cyrillic alphabet was devised in 1814 by Serbian linguist Vuk Karadzic, who created the alphabet on phonemic principles. The Latin alphabet was designed by Croatian linguist Ljudevit Gaj in 1830. For ease of translation, this book uses the Latin Alphabet.
