

Growing Up Black: Teens Write about African-American Identity (Paperback)

By -

Youth Communication, New York Center, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. 2nd ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. African-American teens explore how race has shaped their lives. The authors are told they re too black or not black enough ; they re insulted by family members and friends when they date outside their race; they re followed around by store clerks like criminals. But there s more than just the ugly side of race here. These reflective narratives show young people challenging stereotypes and creating their own definitions of beauty, community, and love --P. ### Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
