Lucky Buzzard LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. 390 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. When a secret government project goes awry and breaches the time space continuum, ancient Korea meets the twenty-first century in an all-out martial arts battle royale. A fantasy novel inspired by the pulp fiction novels of the past, Phillip Allen Humphriess debut is a high-octane, cross-genre blast of anarchy incorporating martial arts history, contemporary pop culture crime drama, and action adventure. 622 AD, the Korean Peninsula. An object shaped like a brick comes hurtling out of the sky. Engorged in flame, it carries with it a strange feeling a sort of vibration that makes the villagers feel different than they have ever felt before. They are certain it is a message from their gods. 2049 AD, 800 feet below the New Mexico desert. A clandestine government project goes horribly wrong and a lunar satellite package carrying a sensitive payload vanishes. As the scientists scramble to find out what went wrong, they are pretty clear on one thing: there have been special anomalies that could be the blending of timelines. And as the pieces are set in motion, the future of our world and the past of another collide with extraordinary force in an epic battle to see who is truly out of time. A non-stop, adrenaline fueled romp that highlights a range of martial arts and weapons, Humphriess brawl-filled adventure is a gritty, visceral, blood-soaked action thriller that is an ode to old school noir as it pings across the centuries. Filled with brash attitude and brutal glory, its unique, multi-layered pop culture story features everything from colorful Yakuza, velociraptors, and sword duels to futuristic war machines and trans-multiverse zombies. A pulse-pounding tour de force, Legend of the Four Dragons Sword is loaded with an unforgettable cast of dynamic Asian...
