River of Light: A Conversation with Kabir is centered in one mans meditations and revelations while traveling on a river. John Morgan spent a week traveling the Copper River in Southcentral Alaska, and the resulting encounters form the heart of this book-length poem. The rivers shifting landscape enriches the poems meditative mood while currents shape the poem and the pacing of its lines. The mystic poet Kabir is Morgans internal guide and serves as a divine foil through quiet stretches that bring to mind questions about war and human nature.
