.Who knew one gaudy Velvet Elvis could lead to such a heap of haunted trouble? When Cleo Tidwell said, I do, for the third time, she had no idea her marriage vows would be tested by a tacky piece of art. But Cleo s not the kind of woman to let a velvet-offense-against-good-taste just hang--oh no, she s on a mission to oust the King. Trouble is, Elvis won t leave the building. And he s attractin all manner of kooks, fanatics, and lookie loos to Cleo s doorstep, including the entire congregation of the Church of the Blue Suede Shoes. Everyone wants a piece of the painting, but Cleo s starting to suspect that whatever s haunting the Velvet Elvis wants a piece of her husband. Why else would her hubby trade in his car for a 56 pink Caddy, moonlight as an Elvis impersonator, and develop a sudden hankering for fried peanut butter and banana sandwiches? Certainly it can t be anything as simple as a mid-life crisis, because Cleo is not getting divorced again -- her mother would never let...
