Liferich, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When the tragic, separate deaths of his parents leave Jed Stone an orphan at seven, he embarks on a volatile path fueled by bad choices. After Jed is befriended by a youth pastor who takes him to see a 1943 Chicago Cub World Series game, an errant baseball lands in the bleachers next to them. Among a stampede of wild fans, Jed snags the baseball and later hides it in a secret place. As Jed grows older, the youth pastor, Peter, attempts to share the concept of God s unconditional love with the boy who will have none of it. As Jed s checkered path leads him from reform school into a life of crime, Peter never wavers in his support of him. When a judge orders Jed to enlist in the Marine Corps, Jed entrusts Peter with his secret and asks him to keep the coveted baseball hidden. Despite all of Peter s efforts and Jed s heroism as a marine, his choices eventually leads him to dark days and eventually full circle where he will make a decision that shines a much-needed ray of hope on two unsuspecting souls. In this inspirational tale, a troubled boy sets out on a coming-of-age journey where he learns about the power of a baseball, God s love, and his own generous heart.
