

Whispers in the Tropics

By Glenda Potts

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 352 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.9in. In this contemporary love story, Tiffany Birdwell, a college student from Kansas travels to Costa Rica to study tropical biology. Caught between her desire to teach and a phobia of public speaking, she struggles to find peace for her dilemma. As Tiffany hikes with a group in the Monteverde rainforest over a series of swinging bridges, she not only falls in love with the tropics, but she is attracted to the naturalist Zachary Caldwell. While Tiffany works to overcome insecurities and self-doubt, Zachary battles ghosts from his well-guarded past. On a solo hike in the rainforest in search of a quetzal, Tiffany has an unpredictable experience that could potentially change her life forever. And later, when a river float trip takes an unexpected turn, Zachary is left searching for answers to love and forgiveness. Will their budding love survive a summer of passion, exploration, and tragedy? Divine whispers of hope for resolving personal crises come through the people in their lives. But will negative whispers of anger and resentment ultimately drive them apart? This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
