Excerpt from The Great Work in America, Vol. 1: The Philosophy of Individual Life; December 1925 And I beheld a ball arising, whirling like a top, - then another, and another, until soon the entire but miniature solar system arranged itself in ordered motion within the space of seven feet before my eyes. The planets, in respective and proportionate paths, all revolved about a marble Of Radium, which my young guide explained, was the Earth s solution of our-earthly problems; as it gave life to all things, in itself being the Earth God of Creation, the body of the Soul, Activity, created magnetism as well, thus inducing Electricity and all powers of locomotion.
