Jill Maybergs Animal Friends: Coloring Book

By Jill Mayberg

Pomegranate. Paperback. Condition: New. 48 pages. 22 artworks to color, the originals are shown on the inside covers. All coloring pages are blank on the back, so you can cut out and frame each of your creations. Read about Jill Mayberg in the introduction. One look at the artworks in this coloring book will tell you that artist Jill Mayberg loves animals. She is also a huge fan of color and pattern, particularly stripes, polka dots, and hearts. She brings a sense of fun and play into her work, creating happy scenes with her animal friends. The artist usually begins with a photograph, then layers drawing, painting, and cut-out images into the final work. She admires children's art and tries to capture a sense of spontaneity in her own work. She paints dogs (and sometimes birds and elephants and others) wearing crowns because she thinks they're royalty and loves to spoil them. Mayberg's childhood home in New Jersey was filled with reproductions of classic paintings as well as original works, because her mother was passionate about art. They took many trips to New York City to visit galleries and museums, and the Metropolitan Museum of Art remains Mayberg's favorite place on earth. She moved...
