Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Setting Sail is a collection of poems and modern-day parables that portray people who have been touched by God s grace. In Perfect Love Vera Lynn discovers that she can celebrate the transient beauty of the world on the back of a Harley. Jill and Mrs. Brown in The Stone Throwers realize that with the Lord s help, they can overcome their animosity toward each other. In The Lost Coins Rachael and Lisa try to find that misplaced part of themselves that they need to reclaim. Kim in The Light of the World finds illumination cast by an oil lamp shining in the window of her neighbor s cabin during one of the darkest periods of her life. In Trial by Fire Lydia overcomes her anguish over her baby s death by reaching out to her adversary, Marie, who just lost her daughter. After years of aimless wandering, Jake, a modern-day prodigal son, in Coming Home meets God alone in the wilderness. A fateful encounter between Laurel and her ex-husband Jim as they anticipate the birth of their first grandchild in The Days Ordained Me demonstrates God s presence in life s most challenging circumstances. In The Kingdom of God Mrs. Adams, a retired widow, reveals God s love to two young girls who visit her. Miranda in The Least of These provides unconditional love to two young women who just happen to cross her path. Jeb plants seeds of God s love in the hearts of the teenagers he counsels in The Sower. Serena discerns a profound message from God as she visits the gravesite of her former lover in The Fig Tree. Julie in The Gazebo renews her faith...
