Shakespeare Confidential (Paperback)

---

By C V Berney

Forever Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This book consists of essays on Shakespeare's plays and related matters written from an Oxfordian viewpoint (that is, under the assumption that the author was Edward de Vere, 17th Earl of Oxford). The first section consists of reviews of performances of the plays, frequently from the 1978-82 BBC series. Other sections explore possible awareness of Oxford's authorship by Sir Walter Scott and Herman Melville. There are detailed analyses of Two Gentlemen of Verona, The Winter's Tale, and Cymbeline, whose putative hero, Posthumus, is identified with the historical figure Henry VII. Dr. Berney's investigation into The Spanish Tragedy has expanded our knowledge of plays by Oxford that are commonly attributed to others. His inquiries into various plays allusions to, and characterizations of, real-life people of the Elizabethan era have carried on the pioneering work of E.T. Clark. - Robert Prechter, author and researcher; Executive Director, Socionomics Institute; President, Elliot Wave International. Outstanding scholarship! Dr. Berney's brilliant essays offer an extraordinary revelation. Through his looking glass, our view is always surprising -- there's more on this landscape than we've...
