Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Would you like to speak and understand verbal and written Spanish? This new complete guide and exercise manual offers an easy and natural approach to learning Spanish. You will find out that this book will be your best friend in the journey to achieve your goal. Learning a language can be frustrating. I learned English as an adult and the methodology that helped me to cross the bridge from Spanish to English constitutes the structure of this book. I tell you: It can be done! This language guide is a consolidation of my own experience and a proof that it works. I am taking you, by the hand, back through the language bridge I traveled a few years ago. On page 26, there is a discussion of the time it takes and how you can monitor your progress. The student of a foreign language should be exposed to verbal language, to the written language, and to brief descriptions of the grammatical differences. Learning a secondary language is not a mechanical substitution of words for words. You will learn Spanish with the Joneses and their friends. You will encounter dialogs where they discuss their daily life and concerns. Follow them through the book and discover how their lives evolve and how they achieve or do not achieve their goals. Will Cora stop nagging her husband? Will Amy be accepted into college? Did the Smiths enjoy their cruise in the Caribbean? Will Amy tell her Facebook friends? Each of the 50 Spanish text samples has associate tables of glossary to reduce the need for a bilingual dictionary. The themes are simple and entertaining: a trip to the Iguassu falls, a hot air balloon...
