HOMAGE TO OMAHA'S NORTHSIDE: CHRONOLOGY, CRITIQUE, COMMENTARY, CORRECTION: MINDSET 1, VOLUME I COLOREDS AND CAUCASIANS IN CORNHUSKER COUNTRY: A LEGACY OF COURAGE AND STRUGGLE IN NEBRASKA S ONLY BLACK GHETTO - A SOCIO-HISTORY

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Without a doubt, this is the most comprehensive analysis ever written about North Omaha, one part descriptive and socio-historical (Volume I) and second part a blistering critique of North Omaha written by a charlatan who placed buildings, parks, infrastructure and token representations of black leadership above a sincere and thorough assessment of the only African-American community in the state of Nebraska (Volume II). This book is an homage to North Omaha because it represents a special honor and respect shown to the history of the people who came to Omaha seeking work and stayed around to make valuable and viable contributions to the historical development of the city, facing racism, housing discrimination, redlining and even death. This book is an homage because the second section of the book pays tribute to the Caucasian businessmen, real estate moguls and other wealthy types who dug into the area, created a race-based empire, then ran from the area when Black people began arriving in the area in sizable numbers. The second part of the book is a continuation of part one and addresses such areas as the black church and other issues before delving into the critique of a book that was insulting to the black presence. Volume II is important because the person who is being critiqued and commented on has the typical perspective of the settler, the interloper who views all that took place as being positive and productive. Despite the denials of and discrimination against people of color, authors such as the one in question nevertheless give the three volume set that is being analyzed the title History of North Omaha, implying that the people will be given due respect when, in reality,...
