Luckily I had a big Brother and one day my brother decided that he should have a horse. So suddenly he had a horse. I dont know How He got it But he always Seemed to get What he wanted, My big brother. He must have been born Under a lucky star Unlike me. So Even though Our parents didnt seem to have much money my brother must have managed to squeeze a reasonable amount out of them to finance this horse. But a horse Doesnt only Need financial support, It also needs attention, And my big brother, He was such a busy person. he didnt always have the time to go to the stable every day to do all the boring stable work. all the cleaning and feeding and grooming and riding in all kind of weather, as one are supposed to when one have a horse, he just couldnt do all that, he was too busy. so I did most of it. I was so happy to finally have got myself a horse, not just a little pony that was what I really wanted but a big white horse. Well, it was almost a pony, only bigger. After one year My brother Was twenty-one years old And he Was so tired Of having this horse So he sold it And bought himself An old sailboat Instead. Then I was just fifteen And in my parents opinion I was clearly too young to have a horse on my own and I didnt have the money either, so then I started drinking and partying instead. For young girls Like me There was always A party And there was always Someone...
